Dear Editor,

On the evening of the "Fraternal Parade" hosted by Dillsburg, a "specky" thing happened! Friends visiting from Halifax asked 3 different policemen to the parade to direct them to Third Street. Each one told them that Dillsburg was Third Street. I lived on Third Street in Dillsburg for 20 years. We raised 7 teen-agers who are now on Third Street and a total of 10 grandchildren. The worst home on Third Street is the home of one of Dillsburg's finest. I would wonder how he feels to read that his home is on a non-existent street.
